

Eisenhower Day of Fellowship

October 14, 2009

Join Us to Celebrate EF Day

Commemorate, Renew, Create, Collaborate

- To commemorate the Fellowships' core belief that Fellows should use "the knowledge gained from their Fellowship for the benefit of their country."
- To renew the Fellowship experience of exchanging international perspectives.
- To create opportunities for increasing the impact and visibility of Eisenhower Fellowships.
- To demonstrate with Fellows around the world that dialogue, understanding and collaboration can make this a more prosperous, just and peaceful world.

How Will You Celebrate?

Examples of 2008 Events

- INDIA: Fellows partnered with the Indo-American Society to produce "Infrastructure—Implications for India" moderated by Sreenivasan Jain, '00, of NDTV with 60 eminent citizens attending. On this occasion the Eisenhower Fellowships Association of India was launched.
- MEXICO and SINGAPORE: In each the EF Alumni chapters organized programs with a speaker addressing the Impact of the U.S. Presidential Elections and drew audiences of up to 150 people.
- PHILADELPHIA: Fellows held a panel discussion on "The Future of Science and Technology" with Philip Yeo, '87, Singapore, and EF Trustee Constantine Papadakis, president of Drexel University.
- SRI LANKA: The Eisenhower Fellows Association of Sri Lanka joined with other organizations to sponsor an essay contest for middle school and high school students on "Ike and His Presidency: Lessons for Sri Lanka."

EF Suggests:

Plan for Outcomes

- An event that not only commemorates President Eisenhower and the Fellowships, but one that launches an alumni association or an activity that has an impact in society.
- An initiative that Fellows will undertake in the spirit of their lifelong identity as Eisenhower Fellows.
- Make a difference in your part of the world by connecting with another part of the globe.
- Leverage participation in the EF Paris conference for a related activity/event.
