

2026 HOVEY AWARD DINNER SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Eisenhower Fellowships will present the 2026 Hovey Impact Award to this year's extraordinary Fellow on Wednesday, November 11 at the Liberty View in Philadelphia. Established in 2023 and endowed by Trustee Jim Hovey and his wife, Carol, the annual Hovey Award recognizes a Fellow or group of Fellows whose work has achieved outstanding positive impact in their field or community. The event celebrates this year's recipient, Dr. Abdul Bari Khan of Pakistan, for his accomplishments in the healthcare field in his home country.

2026 James and Carol Hovey Eisenhower Fellowships Impact Award

Dr. Abdul Bari Khan
Pakistan 2004

Founder, Chief Executive Officer and President of the Indus Hospital & Health Network, Dr. Khan will be honored with the 2026 James and Carol Hovey Eisenhower Fellowships Impact Award for his work building one of the world's largest medical networks providing high-quality health care to millions of patients, free of cost. Launched 18 years ago as a single 150-bed hospital in Karachi, Indus has grown under Khan's leadership into a nationwide health system serving more than six million patients annually.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

AWARD DINNER PREMIER SPONSOR ($50,000)

- Opportunity for a senior organization representative to speak at the Impact Award Dinner to a high-level audience.
- Priority table seating for twenty (20) individuals.
- Lead recognition on the digital signage at the event, EF website and strategic placement of organization's name and/or logo on printed materials.

AWARD DINNER TABLE SPONSOR ($10,000)

- Preferred table seating for ten (10) individuals.
- Recognition on the digital signage at the event, EF website and strategic placement of organization's name and/or logo on printed materials.

AWARD DINNER SUPPORTER ($5,000)

- Preferred table seating for five (5) individuals.
- Recognition on the digital signage at the event, EF website and strategic placement of organization's name and/or logo on printed materials.

The James and Carol Hovey EF Impact Award recognizes work that helps people live better lives by bringing about positive changes in Fellows' professional fields or within their societies at the local, national or international level.

"The Hovey Award underscores our focus on generating positive impact through our programs," said EF President George de Lama.

EISENHOWER FELLOWSHIPS

Eisenhower Fellowships (EF) is an independent, nongovernmental, nonpartisan nonprofit, one of the world's premier international leadership exchange programs. EF inspires leaders around the world to challenge themselves, to envision how they can effect positive change, to engage others beyond their existing networks and to collaborate with other like-minded leaders across national borders to better the world around them.

Eisenhower Fellowships' distinguished Board of Trustees is led by its Chairman, former U.S. Secretary of Defense Robert M. Gates, and Vice Chair Christine Todd Whitman, two-time governor of New Jersey. Among its Trustees are Steve Pagliuca, longtime former co-Chair of Bain Capital and former co-owner of the Boston Celtics, and David and Susan Eisenhower, President Eisenhower's grandchildren.

Past Trustees include former U.S. Secretary of State Madeleine K. Albright, a member of our Board for more than 22 years until her death, Past EF Chairmen include late Secretaries of State General Colin L. Powell and Dr. Henry Kissinger, and before them, late Presidents Gerald Ford and George H. W. Bush after they left the White House.

PAST HOVEY AWARD RECIPIENTS

Looking for something more tailored? We're happy to work with you on customized opportunities that reflect your organization's values and visibility goals. Please contact Erin Hillman, Vice President, Programs and Operations, at 215-546-1738, extension 1978 or ehillman@efworld.org.